Y.A.M. Tan Sri Dato' Seri Syed Anwar Jamalullail Ibni Almarhum Tuanku Syed Putra Jamalullail

Chancellor, SEGi University

"Dear Graduates,

Congratulations! You have made all of us proud of your accomplishments today.

Let today be the moment that you will remember forever in your life, and let it be the first step towards a successful career in your chosen field. Today is a testament to all your hard work and sacrifices in pursuit of an education for a bright future.

As one of the most established education providers in the country, SEGi University has been producing thousands of highly qualified graduates since 2010. It has undergone significant growth, strengthening the quality of its curriculum and programmes from foundation studies to doctorate level. But at the heart of it all, is its commitment to prioritise the needs of all students, not just in the academic aspect but also their well-being. SEGi students are supported and guided to succeed both, in and outside the classroom. Besides providing academic support and guidance, SEGi University ensures its students' well-being is well taken care of.

I am confident that with all the guidance, exposure and experience you have gained throughout your study years at SEGi University, you will become future leaders who will contribute to the community and help to develop the nation, in tandem with succeeding in your chosen career. Be proud of your alma mater, contribute back and inspire all future SEGians to be the best they could possibly be.

On behalf of SEGi University, I congratulate you and wish you the best in your future undertakings."

Y. Bhg. Dato' Pahamin A. Rajab

*Chairman, Board of Governors,
SEGi University*

"Dear Graduates,

As you embark on a new chapter of your life pursuing a career in your chosen field, be assured that you are well prepared and that all your hard work and sacrifices will be well rewarded.

SEGi University has provided you with comprehensive quality education and excellent learning experience through its holistic curriculums and programmes. You are nurtured and guided to be industry-ready and you have the ability to shine and succeed.

You can stand proud as you start your career, knowing that SEGi University, one of the most established education providers in the country, has prepared you well to pursue your dream career.

Continue to make us proud and become leaders in your chosen field. Contribute back to your alma mater and be an inspiration to future generations of SEGians.

On this momentous occasion, my heartiest congratulations and best wishes to you."

Graduation Ceremony

Professor Patrick Kee

Vice Chancellor,
SEGi University

"Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your accomplishments! You have achieved a major academic milestone in your lives that speaks volumes of your hard work, determination and drive to succeed.

I believe, we have prepared you well with all the knowledge, skills, exposure and experience garnered throughout your studies here at SEGi University, one of the most established providers of comprehensive quality education that offers you an excellent learning experience through holistic curriculums and programmes.

As SEGi students, you are supported and guided to succeed in the classroom as well as outside the classroom. Besides providing academic support and guidance, SEGi University ensures your well-being is taken care of through SEGi CONNECT, its Mentor-Mentee system, SEGi Enrichment Programme, Academic Skills Unit, Global Industry Placement, SEGi Employment Readiness Programme, and SEGi Corporate Partners.

I am confident that you will succeed in your chosen field and continue to make us proud.

My parting advice to all – Aim high! Be bold, be courageous, and be the best that you can be! Make SEGi proud and be an inspiration to all future SEGi students as a proud alumnus.

My warmest and best wishes to you and your proud parents."

Professor Graham Baldwin

*Vice-Chancellor,
University of Central Lancashire (UCLAN)*

Graduates, today we celebrate your successes at this prestigious awards ceremony. Such celebrations are always a time of joy and pleasure, and one which we hope you will always remember.

Your qualification today is a testament to the energy, dedication and commitment that both you and your teachers have shown as you worked together to succeed academically.

You should be proud of your achievements and you should celebrate today with all those who have helped you along the way. We hope you will never forget your awards ceremony, or how hard you have worked to get here today!

On behalf of the University of Central Lancashire and SEGi University, I congratulate you on your success and wish you all the very best for an exciting and brilliant future.

Graduation Ceremony

Mr. Norman Chu Su Jiun

*Principal,
SEGi College Kota Damansara*

"Greetings graduates! And heartiest congratulations to you! You have made us all proud of your quality performance and achievements in your studies.

At SEGi College Kota Damansara, we prioritise students' needs and provide a holistic and complete learning experience ensuring that you, our graduates, have been exposed to the finest teachings and curriculums making the best in you possible, and ensuring you have the advantage to succeed in all your future undertakings.

I have the utmost confidence and believe that we have done our best in providing you with the right facilities and opportunities to prepare you for the professional world and you will make your alma mater proud by making a name for yourselves in your chosen field.

Your journey is just beginning. Don't hesitate to grab the opportunity laid in front of you. My warmest and best wishes to you and your proud parents. May you achieve all your dreams!"

THE MACE

In medieval times, the Mace was a weapon employed to safeguard a person of great importance. Now, it is often used in convocation ceremonies to signify the dignity and authority of the Chancellor.

The Mace is 42 inches in total length. It has a 29-inch nyatoh wood Shaft with a metallic band at its midpoint. The Shaft has a smaller 1.25-inch diameter on the lower end and a larger 1.50-inch upper diameter. It symbolises SEGi's aspiration to grow in knowledge and in strength.

The four gold plated rings above the Shaft denote SEGi's core values: Quality, Passion, Vibrant and Caring. This is followed by the inscribed word 'SEGi' sitting above the four rings.

The six palm leaves in 24-carat gold plating inscribed in the Bowl represent the six SEGi campuses. Each leaf has veins that denote the diversity of programmes offered. Above this bowl are sets of three rings representing SEGi's vision, mission, and goals.

The brass and nickel-plated, diamond-shaped Body with the SEGi logo signifies the highly competent graduates produced by SEGi. At the head of the diamond-shaped Body is a pewter and gold plated Crest, a Crescent and a 14-pointed Federal Star in 24-carat gold plating.

The whole ensemble at the top of the Mace represents the heraldic practices embodied in the SEGi convocation. It is also symbolic of SEGi upholding the supremacy of the Malaysian constitution.

VISION

SEGi will place quality education within the reach of willing minds and natural talents.

MISSION

To be the premier regional higher education provider offering quality employability-based international programmes on accessible terms, delivered through the most innovative technologies and student-centric learning techniques.

Graduation Ceremony

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

University Academic Officers and Management

Specific gowns or robes are worn by Academic Officers and the Management on the day of convocation.

The Chancellor

This regalia comprises of a robe of blue silk satin damask with 3-inch wide gold-laced facings, gold-embroidered oak twigs of acorns and leaves on the shoulders, 14 gold tufts on each sleeve and a blue velvet befeater bonnet with a gold tassel.

The Vice-Chancellor

This regalia comprises of a robe of blue silk satin damask with 3-inch wide gold-laced facings, gold-embroidered oak twigs of acorns and leaves on the shoulders, 8 gold tufts on each sleeve and a blue velvet befeater bonnet with a gold tassel.

The Deputy Vice-Chancellor

This regalia comprises of a robe of black ottoman with 5-inch wide silver and blue-laced facings, silver-embroidered oak twigs of acorns and leaves on the shoulders, 4 silver tufts on each sleeve and a black velvet befeater bonnet with a silver tassel.

Graduands

All recipients wear Academic Gowns and Shaped Hoods in black. The Shaped Hoods are lined with silk (lapels) according to the recipient's level of study and colour of the Faculty/School/Centre/Institute.

A Doctoral degree graduand wears a bonnet while bachelor and master degree graduands wear a black mortarboard. The mortarboard, which is square-shaped, comes with a tassel that should be put on the right prior to convocation. After receiving their Degree, the graduands shall move the tassel to the left side of the mortarboard. Certificate and Diploma graduands do not wear the mortarboard.

DEDICATED TO ALL PARENTS

You Raise Me Up

When I am down and, oh, my soul, so weary;
When troubles come and my heart burdened be;
Then I am still and wait here in the silence,
Until you come and sit awhile with me.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be

There is no life - no life without its hunger;
Each restless heart beats so imperfectly;
But when you come and I am filled with wonder,
Sometimes, I think I glimpse eternity.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.
You raise me up to more than I can be.
