THE MACE

In medieval times, the Mace was a weapon employed to safeguard a person of great importance. Now, it is often used in convocation ceremonies to signify the dignity and authority of the Chancellor.

The Mace is 42 inches in total length. It has a 29-inch nyatoh wood Shaft with a metallic band at its midpoint. The Shaft has a smaller 1.25-inch diameter on the lower end and a larger 1.50-inch upper diameter. It symbolises SEGi's aspiration to grow in knowledge and in strength.

The four gold plated rings above the Shaft denote SEGi's core values: Quality, Passion, Vibrant and Caring. This is followed by the inscribed word 'SEGi' sitting above the four rings.

The six palm leaves in 24-carat gold plating inscribed in the Bowl represent the six SEGi campuses. Each leaf has veins that denote the diversity of programmes offered. Above this bowl are sets of three rings representing SEGi's vision, mission, and goals.

The brass and nickel-plated, diamond-shaped Body with the SEGi logo signifies the highly competent graduates produced by SEGi. At the head of the diamond-shaped Body is a pewter and gold plated Crest, a Crescent and a 14-pointed Federal Star in 24-carat gold plating.

The whole ensemble at the top of the Mace represents the heraldic practices embodied in the SEGi convocation. It is also symbolic of SEGi upholding the supremacy of the Malaysian constitution.

DEDICATED TO ALL PARENTS & GUARDIANS

YOU RAISE ME UP JOSH GORBAN

When I am down and, oh, my soul, so weary;
When troubles come and my heart burdened be;
Then I am still and wait here in the silence,
Until you come and sit awhile with me.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

There is no life - no life without its hunger;
Each restless heart beats so imperfectly;
But when you come and I am filled with wonder,
Sometimes, I think I glimpse eternity.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.
You raise me up to more than I can be.
