OUR HISTORY – SEGi UNIVERSITY & COLLEGES

SEGi was established in 1977 as Systematic College in the heart of Kuala Lumpur offering professional qualifications. Since its founding four decades ago, SEGi has undergone significant growth, strengthening the quality of its wide range of programmes from foundation to doctorate level.

It is one of the most established private higher education institution in Malaysia with its flagship campus located in Kota Damansara and four other campuses in Subang Jaya, Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Kuching. Currently, SEGi has a population of 20,000 local and international students across its campuses.

SEGi is recognized as “The first Malaysian University that earned 5 Stars for prioritising society’s needs in Malaysia” by QS Stars, an international evaluation system for universities.
